

TOO MANY MEN FOR COMMITTEES

House Body Has a Hard
Time Finding Places for 300 Republicans

HANDLED BY 3 SOLONS

Some of the Prospective New Committeemen Will Have
No Work for a Year

WASHINGTON, April 1.—The old woman who lived in the above and who tried to put 20 children to sleep in beds big enough only for eight, seemed to have had no trouble in that a house committee which is trying to pick places for about 300 republicans on less than a score of important standing committees.

But it will be done, somehow, with indications that like the children of the story book, they may kick and scream lustily.

There are so many republicans that it is a real problem to scatter them around where they might do the most good. There are only 125 democrats. They are outnumbered about 2 to 1, but with their committee representation sharply reduced they stand a chance of better picking than the republican side, which will actually frame and pass the laws.

Three members, Representatives Mann, Mondell and Moore, are handling the assignments for the republicans. Each day they go through a stack of requests with nearly everybody trying to get on certain committees. The list has been tentatively made up subject to revision and approval Monday by the republican committee on committees. For some it will be much like a high card gamble with the possibility that many of the hundred odd new representatives will not have much more real work for a year or so than answering the roll.

The old members will eat ahead of everybody, go to speak, and the new ones get what is left. But, as a veteran of the public remarks, all draw the same pay, and there is no discrimination in the distribution of free seeds for the folks back home.

CHANCE DECIDES HEIR

Lottery Resorted to for Indication of Which Is Heir.

HAMILTON, Bermuda, April 1.—Richard Darrell won "Norwood," a fine residence property on the shore of Hamilton Harbor and one of the show places of Bermuda, by drawing lots yesterday with two other persons in compliance with the provisions of an unusual will of his uncle.

Henry Darrell, former owner of this estate, could not decide which of his three nephews he would make his heir, so he stated in his will that they should throw dice and let fate decide the matter. But in the interval, his sister, Miss Harriet, was to retain a life interest and continue her residence at "Norwood."

Miss Darrell died in January last and arrangements were then made to carry out the terms of the bequest. It was thought best however to modify the plan to the extent of substituting slips of paper which were shuffled in a box, for the dice throwing. This was consented to by all parties and the lucky nephew is now possessed of the ancestral estate.

P. R. R. ROW UP TO BOARD

Employees of Big Road Flatly Refuse to Accept Reduction in Wages.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 1.—With the flat refusal of representatives of 25,000 Pennsylvania railroad maintenance of way men and unskilled labor to accept a proposed cut in wages of 16 to 25 per cent, the question now goes up to the United States railroad labor board. The decision of the men came late yesterday afternoon after a second lengthy conference with railroad officials.

Hearing of the representatives of 22,000 Pennsylvania employees will continue here piecemeal for the next two weeks. No conference will be held today, but the signal men will be given a hearing tomorrow.

DANCE

Every Tuesday and Saturday nights at new National Guard
Armory, 1109 East Sixth St.

WILL T. DAVIS, Mgr.
Music by
"Tulsa Jazz Pirates"
(Promoters of Pep)

Note: Take East Sixth St.
jitney or Bellview car.

ROYAL

Adults 25c Kids 10c

LAST TIMES TODAY

WILLIAM FOX

PRESENTS

BUCK JONES

—in—

"TWO MOONS"

ALSO

George B. Seitz in "Velvet Fingers"

FREE! FREE! FREE!

Fill in your name and address below, and mail this Coupon to the Lyric theater and you will in return receive by mail a Free Ticket which admits you free to any performance during the opening of the new western serial, "Thunderbolt Jack," featuring Jack Hoxie.

Next Wednesday and Thursday, April 6th and 7th.

Name.....

Address.....

Race With a Tug Puts Ship Mascot With Lost Owner

NEW YORK, April 1.—Thor, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

Ford Periodical Starts a Brawl; Police Summoned

TOLEDO, Ohio, April 1.—Sales of Henry Ford's newspaper, the Dearborn Independent, precipitated a long fight in front of the federal building here this afternoon. Traffic was blocked and police reserves were called out to disperse the mob. P. W. Johnson, H. Kinsman, and Joe Lynch of Detroit, selling the Independent, and Jack Carlson of Toledo were arrested.

PEONAGE CASE MAY DELAY

Plaster Accused of Death of Eileen Negroes May Want Continuance.

COVINGTON, Ga., April 1.—A continuance in the trial of John Williams, a planter and his negro farmhand, Clyde Manning, on charges of murder growing out of the deaths of eleven negroes, employees of Williams, may be asked when the court is convened in special session here April 5. It was stated today by Greene F. Johnson, chief counsel for the defendant. He declared there has been no time to prepare the case and search for witnesses.

A change of venue had been asked by the defense, but this petition has been withdrawn and Williams will be allowed to go to trial in this county.

He is specifically charged with the murder of Willie Pressley, negro on March 19, 1921.

Garage Fire in Texas Does $10,000 Damage

CORRICANA, Texas, April 1.—Fire, which threatened the business district at one time, did $10,000 damage to the Drane and McKee garage here today. A dozen automobiles were destroyed. Firemen were hampered by exploding gasoline tanks.

DANCING

Learn to Toddler Correctly

Classes Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, 8 to 9 p. m., followed by dancing to 12 p. m.

Private Lessons by Appointment

Ideal Jazz Orchestra Every Friday Evening

HAUTLAIRE ACADEMY

414 South Boulder Cedar 424

BROADWAY THEATRE

WHERE EVERYBODY GOES

LAST TIMES TODAY

Hits and Misses

of 1921

Presenting

"THE LAND OF THE MOON"

GIRLS—FUT—MUSIC

Continous Show

Pictures Start at 1 p. m.

Vaudeville, 2:15, 4:15, 6:15,

7:45, 9:45

COMING TOMORROW

JIMMIE ALLARD

AND HIS

U. S. A. GIRLS

WIRE FLASHES

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North sea wreckage during the tug and when they reached the pet of the Oscar II's skipper.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—H. H. Roberts, a seagull dog, was safe aboard the ship mascot, Oscar II, somewhere at sea today, despite the fact that he abandoned the ship yesterday in pursuit of a cat that scratched his nose, and was left behind when the liner sailed. The cat chased over, Thor returned to the pier, and finding his ship gone, treated the water front to a choice of howling. His master's friends ordered a tug, placed the dog on board, overtaking the Oscar II several miles out. Thor was taken off a bit of North